Bailey Kate premiered several new songs at the Owl Acoustic Lounge, Saturday, March 2.

Unfortunately Samantha Savage Smith cancelled because of inclement weather, but guitarist/vocalist/ percussionist Bailey Kate and her band lead guitarists Joel Gray and Dylan Wagner, Richard Charlton playing bass, keyboardist Joel Stretch and drummer Mickey Hayward played a solid set of ambient pop and roots music.

They were in the middle of entertaining a good sized crowd with a laid back and intimate set of original music including a new love song. They picked up the tempo after that to end their show with “Forget About You.”
